

In The Claims

Please amend the single claim as follows:

1. (Currently Amended) ~~The~~ A method of ~~the~~ flax fibres treatment, ~~consisting of~~ having the steps of cleaning, opening and cottonisation of the fibres, is characterized by additional retting and drying, where the opening of fibres is carried out 3 times, firstly before cleaning, secondly before retting and thirdly after drying which takes place after cottonisation which is done by means of electro-hydraulic action on the processed material while placed in liquid.